His showmanship, personality, & style combine with his finessed ability to tell a story to make audiences feel like they are sitting with a dear friend listening to fresh new arrangements of classic & modern songs.

Don't worry, Travis wouldn't let the night slip by without a few hits from
THE FOUR SEASONS & JERSEY BOYS!

“TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE” is an extremely versatile production. It has been presented with a quartet (piano, bass, drums, sax), with a 9 piece band (rhythm & horn sections), as well as full symphonic productions.

Depending on your needs & specifications, it can accommodate any venue, large or small.

With a voice that is strong & powerful, yet clean & nuanced, Travis Cloer is a remarkable talent.

From classical to Jazz, musical theatre to rock-n-roll, & everything in between, there isn't a genre of music that can escape his masterful ability to grab a song & make it his very own.

Growing up the son of a music minister, Travis has music in his blood. His ability to deliver a song & touch a listener's heart is unmatched.

A Kansas native, Travis studied music & theatre at Kansas State University. He then went on to play iconic roles like "Tony" in West Side Story, "Joe Hardy" in Damn Yankees, & "Rusty" in Starlight Express.

He joined the Original Broadway Cast of the TONY & GRAMMY winning JERSEY BOYS & set a record as the longest running actor to play "Frankie Valli" in the show's history WORLD WIDE, with over 2200 performances! His portrayal earned him several BEST ACTOR nominations from BroadwayWorld.com & much acclaim & respect in Las Vegas & on Broadway. 944 Magazine called his performance "riveting & transformative!"

As a solo artist, he has released 3 albums & toured the world, leaving audiences on their feet with his highly energetic & infectious live concerts. He has performed with the symphonies of Salt Lake City, Buffalo, & Las Vegas, as well with the world famous Radio City Rockettes.

Whatever the setting, one thing is for sure...

You will be blown away by Travis Cloer. His voice, charisma, & ability to command a crowd are unparalleled.

BROADWAY STAR. RECORDING ARTIST. UNPARALLELED ENTERTAINER.
